

The role of CELTA in the CPD of non-native speaker teachers

Why are increasing numbers of non-native English-speaking teachers (NNESTs) taking CELTA around the world? What role does it play in their career and professional development? And what impact does it have on their classroom practice and the challenge of finding work as an NNEST? This talk reports on my award-winning research into the role that courses such as the CELTA plays in the careers of experienced NNESTs, offering suggestions for making CELTAs equally relevant and useful for NNESTs and NESTs alike. Talk with Q&A and open discussion to follow.
